NATE OF CONTENT 16 to 29 July 1950 ATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 13 September 1950 EFERENCES AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (E 51/T 1/6), was o by at least 1,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumebly, enrineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recruit observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaule Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia 1. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some wilery and tank insignia.	Ccupied y, motor ts was
ATE OF CONTENT 16 to 29 July 1950 EFFERENCES AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (E 5L/T h6), was on by at least 1,000 troops who were red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, enrineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recruit observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaule Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille in the work who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia including many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some will artillery and tank insignia. 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulets. 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia.	Ccupied y, motor ts was
PLACE OBTAINED ATE OF CONTENT 16 to 29 July 1950 EFFERNCES AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS AND TO CIA I 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (L. 5h/T h6), was on by at least 1,000 troops who were red-bordered black opaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, enrincer insignia. Intensive drilling of recruit observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaule Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels ware seen in the bille who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia in the lock of the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia including many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some willery and tank insignia.	Ccupied y, motor ts was
PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT 16 to 29 July 1950 EFFERENCES AGES ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS RN TO CIA I 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (L. 5h/T h6), was on by at least 1,000 troops who were red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, enrincer insignia. Intensive drilling of recruit observed. 2. Eetween 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaule Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels ware seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia 1. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at he ast 1,000 transluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some willery and tank insignia.	ccupied by, motor ts was
ARTE OF CONTENT 16 to 29 July 1950 EFERENCES AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (L'5L/T L6), was o by at least 1,000 troops who were red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, enrineer insimia. Intensive drilling of recruit observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaule Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia he Moltek Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 troincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia.	ccupied by, motor ts was
AGESENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	ccupied by, motor ts was 25.
RN TO CIA I 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (E. 5L/T 1,6), was o by at least 1,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, engineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recruiceserved. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaule Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia in the koltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at heast 1,000 transluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some will lery and tank insignia.	ccupied by, motor ts was 25.
1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (K. 5h/T h6), was o by at least 1,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, engineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recrui observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulets Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia to the Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some with lery and tank insignia.	ccupied by, motor ts was 25.
RN TO CIA I 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (E 51/T 16), was o by at least 1,000 troops who were red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, enrineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recruit observed. 2. Estween 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulets sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Estween 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia. 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some with lery and tank insignia.	ccupied by, motor ts was 25
1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (E 5h/T h6), was oby at least 1,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, enrineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recruic observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaule Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at heast 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some will lery and tank insignia.	occupied y, motor ts was 25)
RN TO CIA 1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (E.5h/T h6), was oby at least 1,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, engineer insimia. Intensive drilling of recruit observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulet Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia. 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with lery and tank insignia.	occupied y, motor ts was 25)
1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (K 5h/T h6), was o by at least 1,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, engineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recrui observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulets Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia to the Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some with lery and tank insignia.	occupied y, motor ts was 25)
1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (E. 5h/T h6), was oby at least 1,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, engineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recrui observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulet Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia to the Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 troops who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia.	occupied y, motor ts was 25)
2. Eetween 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops who were red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, engineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recrui observed. 2. Eetween 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulets Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Eetween 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who were red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia. 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some with lery and tank insignia.	occupied y, motor ts was 25)
1. From 16 to 29 July 1950 the Hindenburg Kaserne (Schwerin (M. 5h/T h6), was oby at least 1,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artiller transport and, presumably, engineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recruit observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulet Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the billet who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia to the Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 troops were seen in the billet and tank insignia.	occupied y, motor ts was 25)
transport and, presumably, engineer insignia. Intensive drilling of recrui observed. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulets Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 troincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some with lery and tank insignia.	y, motor ts was 25) earing cbserved. 2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulets Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 troops we have the moltage of the paulets. Some with artillery and tank insignia.	ts was 25)
2. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Fritsch Kaserne housed about 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, and black epaulet Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille. 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia. 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 troops we red-bordered black epaulets. some with lery and tank insignia.	25) earing
Sections equipped with climbing spurs and wire reels were seen in the bille 3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 treincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some will lery and tank insignia.	earing
3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who wore red-bordered black epsulets, some with artillery and tank insignia 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epsulets. some will lery and tank insignia.	ting area.
3. Between 16 and 29 July 1950 the Krueger Kaserne was occupied by 1,000 to 1, who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery and tank insignia 4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black epaulets. some will lery and tank insignia.
4. The Moltke Kaserne appeared to be occupied to capacity by at least 1,000 traincluding many young soldiers, wearing red-bordered black enaulets. some will lery and tank insignia.	Maa t
lery and tank insignia.	500 troops
tery and tank insignia.	oops,
	 25)
X1 X1 X1
X1 5. The Adolf Hitler Kaserne, Buchholz, has an estimated capacity of about 3,000	25) troops. several annex buildings, utility buildings, garages and sheds. The caldians	o has 25) were seen wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery and motor transpornia and red epaulets.	rt insig-
	5
were seen through the open doors of a garage.	r vehicles 25)
6. A truck convoy coming from the direction of "ismar entered Schwerin on 21 Ju	ıly 1950.
	Anounce
convoy of at least 30 gun-towing trucks Schwerin on 25 July 1950 via Wismarsche Strasse. Some of the vehicles were	1eft 25
laying prime movers and some trucks were loaded with billeting equipment. (3	1)
CONFIDENTIAL
CLASSIFICATION CHARGE NO.	25
This document is hereby regraded to
CONFIDENTIAL In accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the	3

Approved For Release 2003/00/11-CIA 437-02-00457R005900530010-2

		SECONT- 25X	125X1
25X1
25X1 25X1	7.	A gun with an estimated caliber of 180 to 200 nm and split-trail carriage stood in the yard of the Hindenburg Kaserne on 27 July 1950. On the same day furniture was unloaded from a freight car at the railroad station and trucked to the Hindenburg Kaserne.	25X1
	8.	A Soviet colonel, when making inquiries at a German office about selling his passenger car	25X1
25X1	(1)	Comments. The information indicates that elements of the 94th Gds Ltz Rifle Div and headquarters units of the IX Mtz Rifle Corps were still at their Schwerin post at the end of July 1950.
25X1	(2)
25X1	(3) (4)	Possibly an element of the 9hth Gds Ltz Rifle Div going to a training area. the 115th How Arty Regt of the 9hth Gds Ltz Rifle Div in Schwerin prior to early August 1950.

CONFIDENTIAL